The Pensacola leaves to-day for San Francisco, and carries with her nearly $300,000 of this is in Marican gold dollars for the China and Japan money markets.

The United States steamer Saginaw is in port and has something to do in explorations and surveys. She will remain cruising about the gulf for some time. The Saginaw, it is expected, will go up to New Archangel in the coming spring and watch our interests along the coast of Alaska. The following is a list of her officers—Lioutenant Commander J. G. Mitchell, commanding; Acting Master C. C. Bunker, Executive Officer; Acting Master J. B. Wood, Navigator; Assistant Surgeon, R. A. Whedon; Assistant Paymaster, Charles H. Lockwood; Acting First Assistant Engineers, A. L. Grow, E. T. Peake; Ensigns, Frank H. Parker, A. H. Vali; Acting Ensign, John Ross; Mate, Philip Randall; Captain's Clerk, Charles L. Hidden. Assistant Surgeon E. B. Bingham detached and ordered home December 13, 1867.

The following changes have been made:—Dr. J. Winthrop Taylor has been appointed fleet surgeon of the North Pacific squadron.

Surgeon R. A. Whedon arrived here on the 13th and the transfer of Dr. Jackson to the South Pacific squadron.

Surgeon R. A. Whedon arrived here on the 13th and reported on board the Saginaw, to which vessel he has been assigned to fill the vacancy occasioned by Assistant Surgeon Singham being ordered to report to New York. The Sritish steamer Scout is in port and will continue to cruise about the gulf for the winter. Captain J. A. P. Price reports health of crew and officers excellent. The British steamer Malacca sailed for Panama last night at eight o'clock.

The general health and condition of the officers and crews of the vessels of the North Pacific squadron Admiral Thatcher reports to be astifactory. There is little or no sickness. The fact is kept very active, and thus both officers and men are relieved of an unendurable monotosy.

The Frigate Minnesota.
